Dearest Mother & Daddy,

Just to let you know all is well and that we had a little rain of some kind this a.m. Early it was foggy looking and between 7 & 8 sun shone nicely so that it would be nice and about 8 was all ~~gm~~ fogged up again. Don't know whether it rained before the sun came out or after - but when we left the house walks were all wet and street, ditto.

~~Tom~~ Friday the Fleet is supposed to arrive and I guess the whole town - or should I say from San Pedro to San Diego - is making big plans for it's arrival. The Station is intending to broadcast some of the "highlights" during the day - just 15 minutes or so at a time - suppose KFOX is too. "Shore leave" is to begin as soon as they go thru their various inspections - sometime in the forenoon KGER expects (or thinks) will be 1st broadcast. However, the time is not definite and even the day as the Navy is "Subject to change without notice".

Guess Gae didn't come down today - didn't ask Alden and he didn't say and I haven't seen her - now 1:20

This is paper - feels like a rag doesn't it? The other end we used when trying it out to see if we wanted to order any - so I have torn it off. This paper is used in radio plays, etc. (close to the mikraphone) as there is no crackle or noise from it in handling. Feels thick too - doesn't it?

Guess I'll eat my sandwiches and then mail this and some other letters as an excuse to go thru Kresses.

Hope you're feeling Okee Dokee

Bye for this time -

Much love -

(A lot of writing about nothing !)

huh ?

might just as well send the whole sheet!

J.P. not here Tue

you to Leith, Penn

House looked swell with all the Pinks + Hollys still blooming + sweet. Some of roses are drooping. Have eaten 1/2 of rhubarb + 4 egg
